

Further deregulation of media is undemocratic, unfair, and unwise. We need to have more, not fewer, opinions expressed and aired, more and not fewer owners of media. Debate, presentation of all sides of issues, participation by the public - all are good for our nation.

Further, I am distressed to learn of the lobbying and the junkets connected with the pending vote. It makes me very suspicious of the FCC and its decision-making.